

Thank You!

“There is more treasure in books than in all the pirate’s loot on Treasure Island.”

—Walt Disney

Community Readers’ Day 2011

Hamden Public Schools

Sponsored by Hamden Education Foundation and Eli’s on Whitney

Guest Readers

Yetta Auga	Chief David Berardesca
Bob Brinton	Marjorie Clark
Kristen Cusato	Michael D'Agostino
Ann DeMatteo	Stephanie Dionne
Kathleen Etkin	Bill Fitzmaurice
Officer Angela Hall	Crystal Haynes
Chris Honnen	Vin Iezzi
Mayor Scott Jackson	Dale Kroop
Linda Langan	Shala J. LaTorraca
Flo McBride	Nancy McNicol
Rose Mentone	Vera Morrison
Carol Noble	Jim Pascarella
Fran Rabinowitz	Shawn Reilly
Marc Robbins	Susan Rubino
Adam Sendroff	Audrey Turner
Chris Velardi	Roslyn Williams

Hamden town officials Kathleen Etkin and Sue Rubino read to Mrs. Perretta's and Miss Warner's students. Mrs. Errico's class and Miss Bauer's class received visits from business leaders Stephanie Dionne and Yetta Augar.

West Woods School

Bear Path School

At Bear Path School Mrs. Di-Meo, Mrs. Rice, Ms. Wills, and Ms. Varcas received visits from Hamden resident Flo McBride, Board of Education member Chris Honnen, Legislative Council member Jim Pascarella, and HEF member Betsy Fitzsimmons.

West Woods school invited eight community members into their school to read. Hamden town official Rose Mentone visited Mrs. Clark's class, and Hamden Fire Department Battalion Chief Bill Fitzmaurice read to students in Mrs. Curcio's class. Town Clerk Vera Morrison and Hamden Journal publisher Shala J. LaTorraca read to Mr. Lowenbaum's and Mrs. Mackenstein's classes.

Church Street School

WTNH reporter Crystal Haynes read a story to Ms. Hakkinen's class, Legislative Counsel member Carol Noble visited Ms. Rende's students, and Ms. McKiernan's class heard a story from Superintendent Fran Rabinowitz.

Hamden Fire Department Chief David Berardesca read to Mrs. Burkholz's students, and Hamden resident Audrey Turner read to Mr. Guillaume's class.

Spring Glen School

Mrs. Hecht's students heard a story from

WTNH anchor Kristen Cusato, and Mrs. Irwin's class was read to by Hamden town official Dale Kroop.

Shepherd Glen School hosted three community readers. Mrs. Mauro's class heard a story from Board of Education member Adam Sendroff and WTNH news anchor Chris Velardi read to Mrs. Nielsen's students. Business leader Linda Langan read to Mrs. Brockett's first graders.

Shepherd Glen School

Dunbar Hill School was visited by three community members. New Haven Register reporter Ann DeMatteo read to Mrs. Houck's class, HEF president Vin Iezzi read to Ms. Ford's students, and Mrs. Golden's class got a visit from Officer Angela Hall from the Hamden Police Department.

Dunbar Hill School

Mayor Scott Jackson read to students in Ms. Brooks' class, and HEF member Marjorie Clark celebrated reading with students in Ms. Oberdick's class.

Helen Street School

Board of Education Chairperson Michael D'Agostino read to students in Mrs. Bowsher's class, and WNH sports reporter Marc Robbins visited Mrs. Dziejma's class. Miller Library's Associate Director Nancy McNicol and Eli's on Whitney owner Shawn Reilly read to Mrs. Gandelman's and Mrs. Stanley's classes. Hamden town official Bob Brinton read to Mrs. Sutula's students.

Ridge Hill School

